Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:7

Allen and I were married on June 8, 1969, and moved June 9th from Columbus to Chevy Chase, MD into a high rise apartment building on the 18th floor. I had never lived in anything but a house in Columbus my whole life, so this move was exciting but oh so different for me. We knew no one!

We decided since Allen would be making $15,000.00 annually that it would not be necessary for me to seek employment! Big mistake! I didn't know what to do with my time which resulted in my becoming very, very homesick! I was floundering!

I did start attending a Methodist Church nearby which helped me tremendously. I prayed to God to somehow, someday return us back home. I was confident my prayer would be answered in God's time. In the meantime I did get a job (which helped fill my time of loneliness).

My husband was not happy in his new position. He had to do some traveling and was sent off to Michigan for a meeting. I went along to spend a weekend with my sister and her family who lived in a suburb of Detroit. While there, and Allen was attending his meeting, a call came through for him which I took in his absence. The call was from the President of Capital University who wanted to interview Allen for a VP position there. Allen eventually travelled to Ohio for the interview and was hired! Home at last!

God is so good! With faith, hope and belief, He answered my prayer!

Prayer: Our Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of prayer and the assurance that in your way and time you will answer. Amen
