Pre-marital Sessions with Officiant

Couples married at Powell United Methodist Church (PUMC) are required to complete three sessions of pre-marital conversations with, or approved by, the clergy performing the ceremony. During one of these sessions, the clergy will assist you in planning the order of worship of your ceremony. Appointments should be scheduled four to six months in advance of the wedding, based on the pastor's availability.

Guest Pastors

- By invitation of the officiating clergy, a guest clergy may assist in the wedding.

Ceremony

- The wedding music is expected to be appropriate for a Christian wedding ceremony and is subject to approval by the clergy.
- The organist can play the organ and/or the piano for your ceremony.
- A guest organist may be used at the invitation of the church organist.
- Flash photography may be used during the processional and recessional but not during the spoken portions of the ceremony.
- Videography is allowed from the church balcony or the rear of the church.
- Photographers and videographers should consult with the Wedding Logistics Coordinator prior to the service.

Wedding Logistics
