God's generosity inspiring our own

Today's Communion Offering supports All in Community, a ministry that shares Christ's love by providing hope and support to persons who are incarcerated or reentering the community from incarceration, and their families. All in Community also seeks to raise awareness of the issues related to mass incarceration. It is a part of a West Ohio Conference initiative. Use the enclosed envelope.

Equal Exchange Coffee Sale today! All coffees are on sale today in the Main Hall. Semi-sweet chocolate chips are our featured item for October, perfect for fall baking. Be sure to try a sample of homemade pumpkin chocolate chip muffins. Support small scale farmers and the Common Ground Free Store by purchasing these delicious food items and more at our table.

Support Men Reentering the Community from Incarceration. Take a tag from the tree in the Main Hall to provide nonperishable nutritious food items for men who often miss scheduled halfway house meals due to long hours of work and transportation. The food will be distributed by Damascus, a nonprofit staffing solution working with persons who face barriers to employment due to previous incarceration. This giving opportunity is sponsored by All In Community, in response to the impact of mass incarceration. Contact hannahewald@powellumc.org.

Angel Tree for People in Need: buy gifts for a family this Christmas! Families and small groups at our church are invited to purchase gifts for children from one family before we put the Angel Tree up to support families through a non-profit, People in Need, during the holiday season. The gifts include: one toy and one clothing item and do NOT need to be wrapped. Instructions and specific gift suggestions will be given upon the receiving of the family. The deadline to sign up for a family is Oct. 21. To sign up and with questions, contact Pastor Katya, katyabrodbeck@powellumc.org.

Food Pantry Items of the Month: Canned Fruit. Purchase some extra items when you shop, and drop them – along with any other items of your choice – in the church's mission carts. Your donations make a big difference for Delaware County families and individuals who visit People In Need's choice food pantry.
