“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!” Matthew 6:19-23

These are pets. They are more than animals. They are a part of the family, a companion through life. They comfort, protect and entertain. Their eyes are fixed on their beloved owners who feed, love and care for them. Who are your companions? They may be pets, neighbors, family or friends. The Christian life is lived out in community. That means together. There is beauty in that togetherness. Who helps you walk through life when it is difficult or joyous? Name them and thank them.
