Say among the nations, "the Lord reigns." The world is firmly established, it cannot be moved; he will judge the people with equity. Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them. Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy; they will sing before the Lord, for he comes, he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in his truth. Psalm 96:10-13

What does it mean to you that all creation sings? God is in relationship with more than just humans. All of creation...the earth, universe, creatures, humanity. And the creature wants to thank the creator. When we stop and realize that we are not the beginning and ending of our own lives, it is humbling. We are created in love to love others. When the psalm speaks of God coming to judge the earth it is talking about making everything "right". Balancing out inequities. It is a joyful and loving thing to do. In your own way sing your thanks to God our Creator who makes everything come out right.
