"Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked. For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord bestows favor and honor; no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless. O Lord Almighty, blessed is the man who trusts in you." Psalm 84:10-12

Look at the rays streaming through the giant redwoods! The branches are reaching to the heavens and the sun is shining down through the branches creating a luminescence that is unique and holy. We often associate the light with God. That God's presence is reaching us even though we feel small and insignificant. When we look up, seek God's presence, we feel lifted up out of our doldrums into the sacredness of God. Even if our troubles do not disappear, we trust in God and are blessed. Remember your blessings today. And let the light of God shine upon you. It is beautiful.
