These are the last words of David: The inspired utterance of David son of Jesse, the utterance of the man exalted by the Most High, the man anointed by the God of Jacob, the hero of Israel's songs: 'The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me; his word was on my tongue. The God of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me: 'When one rules over people in righteousness, when he rules in the fear of God, he is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings grass from the earth.'"
2 Samuel 23:1-4

"Like the light of morning at sunrise" is a beautiful picture in our minds. We have all experienced beautiful sunrises that take our breath away. When light is shown on goodness, it sparkles. We are called to that goodness. And we are called to stand tall like the new grasses with the integrity of heart that God put within us. We can make someone else's day with kindness and affirmation for who they are. Let us be about this morning-light work.
