

Moments of Beauty Week 11 - Music

Monday, November 16

Moments of Beauty in Music Video

Artwork credit: Associated Parishes for Liturgy & Mission

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BCzbNONsSTg>

Music video credit: "Run to the Father" performed by Matt Maher

"When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.' So he got up and went to his father. "But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him. Luke 15:17-20 (excerpt from the parable of the Prodigal son)

This year I have missed going to live concerts to see some of my favorite contemporary worship artists perform in person. I know we will have the opportunity to see live performances again in the future and I can't wait! One of my favorite artists that I have had the opportunity to see perform several times is Matt Maher. I find his lyrics to be both beautiful and meaningful. His song "Run to the Father" is one of my current favorites. I love the way this video is shot and the instrumentation with the guitar, cello and violin. This song reminds me that no matter what is going on in this crazy world today, we always have our Father that we can turn to again and again and again. Thoughts by Karen Curren