

Moments of Beauty Finale'

Monday, November 23

Bennett Parkway in autumn. Photo Credit: Kim La Rue

Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to observe thy righteous ordinances. I am sorely afflicted; give me life, O LORD, according to thy word! Accept my offerings of praise, O LORD, and teach me thy ordinances. Psalm 119:105-108

Our Moments of Beauty devotions come to an end today. It has been a pleasure to be with you in these reflections since Labor Day. I pray that you have been touched in some way and have been brought closer to God and have been able to see beauty around you in ways you might not have noticed before. Our lives have been impacted by many external sources this year. It has been chaotic and confusing. And yet God's presence has been constant guiding us and encouraging us, protecting and providing for our needs. This scripture is one to live by...God's word is a lamp...not just God's word as law that guides us but also God's Word in the form of Jesus who loves us. We are cared for by the Creator, the Savior and the Spirit who accompanies us.

It is with great thanks to the dozens of people who offered their words, pictures and artwork that helped these devotions come alive. Blessings to all of you as you continue to find the beauty around you.