

Prayers for 02.04.24

Thanksgiving

Jackson James Wibberley, our grandson, as we celebrate his birth, born 01/22, to our son Aaron, daughter-in-law Laura and big sister Riley Rose. Deb & Les Wibberley

Jana Shoaf, my mother-in-law, with thanksgiving that she is finally able to get into a local dialysis center and that her treatment is going well and she is slowly getting stronger. Kris Frantz-Shoaf Caring Heart Teams, for their hospitality and love that surrounds our church members and friends during memorial and funeral services. PUMC

Russ Malcolm, for going over and above his duties to enable great ministry and outreach. PUMC
The Winter Youth Gathering, that enabled youth to spend time engaging with their faith, connecting with youth from across the district, and reflecting on their role as leaders in the church. PUMC

Those who served to help host the Winter Youth Gathering and the Go Grants Award Ceremony by giving time and energy to engage and celebrate the amazing ministry throughout the conference.

PUMC

Sunday Weakley & her students, for kick starting the 2024 Used Book Sale by collecting 6000 books!
The Lily Circle

Comfort, Healing, Discernment, Strength & Peace

My friend, diagnosed with Stage 4 cancer in May of 2023. Unsigned

Krissie, my co-worker, that her treatment is effective and all illness be eradicated. Pam Zweibel

Monica, my daughter, for answers as her seizures are becoming difficult to control. Nancy Cuartas

Sharlene Exline, my mother, as she recovers from surgery and prepares for chemotherapy. Traci Pickett

My friend, struggling with balance in her life. Unsigned

Carl Telfer, my friend, in the ICU with a brain bleed and staph infection. Nancy Cuartas

My Haitian friends, for their safety as they are not able to leave Haiti at this point because all international flights have been canceled due to the uprising. Amy Sarver

Myself, for the job I have applied for to come through. Darin Baldwin

Mary Ellen, my sister, who received a prognosis of weeks to live with the cancer that has spread through her body. Liz Foster

Jean Ostrander, former Powell resident, for swift healing of broken ribs from a recent fall in her Florida apartment. Dave Woodyard

Sympathy

The family of Denise Reese, our friend, for comfort and support as they grieve her death. Connecting Threads

Growing Together in Faith

Confirmation Students, as they gather this week to learn about the Social Principles of the UMC. PUMC

Our Lenten Journey, as we enter into the season of Lent and spend intentional time deepening our faith through worship, devotions, classes, and other experiences. PUMC

Children, Youth, and their Families, who are learning more about attending summer church camp. PUMC

Sharing God's Love & Changing Our World

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper, as we gather for food, fellowship, and to support our Red Bird Mission Team. Missions Committee

Prayers for 02.04.24

Those who are filling Welcome Home Bags, as they demonstrate God's love by providing for the tangible needs of returning citizens. All in Community