

Prayers for 04.28.24

Thanksgiving

Taylor Bush, my daughter, so excited for her wedding, 5/11. Joe Bush

For our high school graduates, may they feel God's love and the support of their PUMC church family as they celebrate this wonderful milestone and begin their next adventure, seeking how God is leading them to grow together in faith, share God's love and change our world. PUMC

Kris Shoaf, for her leadership of our mental health ministry and efforts to raise awareness and provide support for those experiencing mental health concerns. PUMC

Comfort, Healing, Discernment, Strength & Peace

For parents of our high school graduates, may they feel God's comfort in this new transition as they see their children graduate and embark on their next adventure. PUMC

Those impacted by crime, that they can find peace, comfort and wholeness after traumatic experiences. PUMC

Ms. Nothing, my Hope Letter Recipient, for hope and peace as she serves her time and looks forward to a future release date. Karen Curren

Shirley, my friend, that testing will reveal better than expected news. Treatment that will be effective without substantial side effects. Pam Zweibel

Krissie, that her treatments will bring about an effective resolution. That she will be restored to full health with long life. Pam Zweibel

Bob, my neighbor, that his treatments are effective and that he will experience few side effects. Praying for complete recovery. Pam Zweibel

Brothers-in-law of Therese, that their treatments bring about positive results. Pam Zweibel

Lynne, my friend, as she navigates treatments for pancreatic cancer. Kaylin Masonbrink

All those involved and those impacted, by the move of the United Methodist Church - Ohio archives. Dave Boling

Those attending General Conference, as their both/and work affects the future of the United Methodist Church. Dave Boling

Myself and others, who are battling allergies and sinus issues this spring. Catherine Dutkiewicz

Jamie, my son, who is fighting painful gout and on crutches as he is leaving for Florida.

Catherine Dutkiewicz

Sympathy

Paul, my friend and fellow pastor, as he and his family grieve the death of his daughter. Dave Woodyard

Growing Together in Faith

Cancer Support Group, as they gather to provide laughter, support, and love while facing difficult diagnosis. PUMC

Girl's Night Participants, as they learn about God's care by studying the story of Naomi and Ruth. PUMC.

Sharing God's Love & Changing Our World

Lily's Circle, for the love and hard work they pour into preparing meals for our neighbors at the Common Ground Free Store. PUMC

Common Ground Free Store Volunteers, for those who give their time to serve and care for the shoppers at the Common Ground Free Store. PUMC

Stephen Ministers, who meet with their care receivers each week to listen, provide support, and share their faith. PUMC

Prayers for 04.28.24

Connecting Threads group, for the heart of their ministry and the beautiful stitchwork they used to make meaningful gifts for our active PUMC youth graduates. PUMC
